

PyHelpers

`pypi` `v1.4.6` `python` `3` `docs` `passing` `license` `GPLv3+` `code quality` `A` `DOI` `10.5281/zenodo.7679196`

Author: Qian Fu

Email: q.fu@bham.ac.uk

PyHelpers is an open-source Python package designed as a lite toolkit for facilitating data (pre)processing. It offers a miscellaneous collection of handy utilities, which could assist us in performing many common data manipulation tasks, such as reading/writing of file-like objects, handling of various types of data (e.g. geographical data and textual data) and communication with relational databases (e.g. PostgreSQL and Microsoft SQL Server).

Documentation

- Installation
- Modules
- License

Tutorial

- Quick start

Indices

- Index
- Module Index
- Search Page

Next ➞